One of the most beautiful dramatic pictures of the days of '40 ever made, is known as "The Golden Days." This is the only picture of this nature recently made to receive favorable criticism by both New York and Boston critics. This with two other feature pictures makes the Comique show the best run in Barre for many days.

Mrs. Charles A. Longren gave an informal party at her home last evening in honor of her guests, Mrs. W. N. Turner of Randolph. An entertainment of readings, etc., was given and refreshments of sandwiches, cheese, salad, coffee, ice cream and cake were served. The party returned home after having spent a delightful evening.

The Spaulding high school girls' basketball team went to St. Albans this morning, where they will play the high school girls of that city this evening. Those who went were, the Misses Grace Cheney, Elizabeth Carson, Mae Carson, Ethel Hoar, Marguerite Stoughton, Gladys Bradford, Blanche Haskins, with Miss Hope Davis as chaperone.

A large and enthusiastic audience was at the opera house last night. The bill was a Sherlock Holmes detective story. Mr. Harris is a very versatile actor and has surrounded himself with a company far above the average. The specialties are changed at each performance. The bill to-night is "Dens of New York," a sensational melodrama with a thrill every minute.
